ALEX PANGMAN AND HER ALLEYCATS

Live in Montréal

The New CD in Stores Oct. 19th
Distributed in Canada by Festival

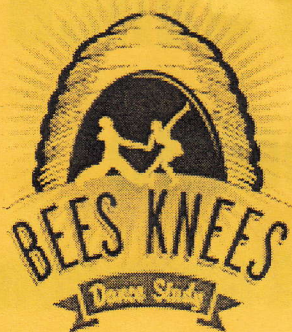

A sultry & powerful vocal presence on the Canadian Jazz scene, Miss Alex Pangman has enlivened many a club and concert hall with her unerring take on 1930's and 40's style jazz. Hers is a music created in an era when melody and substance reigned supreme in the jazz world, and she presents it with all the love, fun, and respect it deserves. "Live in Montreal" showcases this vivacious singer in full swing as she is backed up by her band the Alleycats. Much more lion-like than feline, these "cats" back up Miss Pangman through a set of hard to find jazz numbers such as "Yours All Yours", "They Say", and "Let Yourself Go". The sound of an enthralled audience throughout is a testament to this woman's persuasive and infectious charm.

"an exceptional recording that belongs in your collection... a worthy introduction to you who have not heard of this remarkable songbird"
Hal Hill - jazzcanadiana.com

Come see and hear Alex and Her Alleycats perform songs from her new CD at the Mod Club Theatre on Wednesday October 19th. The Bebop Cowboys open with a set of Texas Swing and Hillbilly boogie music. And hey all...Don't forget to put on your dancing shoes!
